

ADVENT LUTHERAN CHURCH

Thanks to a generous bequest, Advent Lutheran Church is able to make financial contributions through its endowment to groups and individuals creating positive change in our community and around the world. After submitting the application below, your request will be considered by our endowment committee and church council in a timely manner. Individuals and organizations that receive funding will be invited to Advent to share more about your work. We are grateful to partner with you in making our community and the world a more loving, just, and equitable place.

Joseph Schattauer Paillé, Pastor
